Moist, gentle steam, infused with natural essential oils and herbal aromatics, enhances the spa experience.

Radiant emitters are engineered to produce heat that is the same frequency level as our own body's, creating a comforting relaxing warm environment.

Vitamin Mineral System

Dispenses nutrients such as vitamins and minerals into the mist steam. The mist system can achieve the same powerful goals as a mineral springs bath.

Radiant Dry Heat Fusion

Six (6) powerful turbo-fans quietly drive the ultra clean radiant dry heat from the heat emitters down into the capsule's body chamber to deliver a vortex of ambient dry heat around the body.

Double Steam Diffusion

Broad, enlarged flow-pattern, inner-capsule steam diffusion is delivered through two (2) improved, larger steam jets for total-body saturation.

Double Tropical Mist

Two (2) tropical mist diffusers provide an even dispersal of liquid vitamins and minerals during the 'tropical rain' function (CocoonAqua HydraJet & HydraOcean).

Chromolight Stations

Six (6) stations of Colorbath lights envelope the entire capsule with multiple colors of red, blue, yellow, green, aqua, violet and orange.

Let's take a closer look at water, for it has some very unique characteristics. In Feng Shui, water is energy that descends. It moves from the sky and snow peaked mountain caps to the rivers below — ultimately finding its way to Mother Ocean. Although water is considered the most sensitive of all elements, it is also very powerful— able to crack the hardest stone. It is a universal solvent and carries traces of all elements that touch it, and has a profound memory. This “memory” can be programmed according to the research of famed scientist Masaru Emoto. Masaru even claimed that the human consciousness can affect the molecular structure of water — and this concept is echoed in current discoveries in quantum physics and string theory.
